Jaime Kishpaugh, Research Coordinator

Curriculum Vitae

July 28, 2023

Education

2019 B.A. in Linguistics and Spanish; Haverford College

(in progress) Master's in Public Health, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

➔ Bloomberg Fellow focusing in Addiction & Overdose studies

Experience

Public Health Management Corporation, Research & Evaluation Group

- Bilingual Research Assistant, 2019-2021 (promoted to Research Coordinator 2021-2023)
  - Contingency Management, SBIRT, We the Village online Community Reinforcement and Family Training clinical trials, American Lung Association environmental health, and PA Asthma Control Plan projects among others

Freelance

- Video series editor for 'Cali Chiu?' Zapotec lessons, 2020

Community Life Links

- Mental Health First Aid Intern, 2019

Haverford College, Department of Linguistics

- Research Assistant, 2019
  - Funding from the Center for Peace & Global Citizenship
  - In partnership with the NSF REU Summer Field Studies Program
- Teaching Assistant, 2019
  - Funding from the Department of Linguistics

Haverford College Libraries

- Slocum Digital Scholarship Fellow, 2018

Publications

- 2019. "Zapotec Mapped onto Spanish" Unravelling Magazine, https://unravellingmag.com/articles/zapotec-mapped-onto-spanish/

Digital Projects

- Ticha Project (2018)
  - Encoded Arte de Levanto
- Talking Dictionaries (2019)
  - Co-author credit on Teotitlán del Valle Zapotec dictionary