Tips and Advice

- Do NOT open two instances of OTIS in the same browser! It will confuse the system and you will lose data.
- Do NOT use the Back Button on your browser, nor the backspace key to navigate to a previous page.
- Be aware that different users can accidentally save over the work of another user, if they're on the same page at the same time. If you have multiple users entering data, try to designate different sections.
- Save early, Save often and Save before walking away from the computer. Don't lose your data by getting timed-out!
- Have all of your data and information collected, edited and finalized before starting the OTIS process… this greatly increases the speed of the data entry.
- At any time before doing the final Submit, you can go back and Edit your information. Once the Application has been submitted in OTIS, it's final. Consider it like dropping a letter in the mail slot at the Post Office. It's gone!
- Go back and review all sections before Final Submit
- Data Entry process in OTIS may take an entire day or two. Plan accordingly!
- Basic process is: Start from the top, click Edit/Add, fill out info, Save, go down to next item, repeat!

Local Program Evaluator (LPE) Registry

This Registry solicits information about the qualifications, areas of expertise, and availability of individuals who would like to be considered as local program evaluators for CTCP funded projects.

CTCP requires its local contractors to direct a minimum of 10 percent of their local program funds toward evaluation and to designate at least one qualified evaluator as the lead. Tobacco Control Plans submitted must include a description of the evaluation design, data collection methods and instruments, sampling, data analysis plan, and how the findings will be disseminated. Local program evaluators generally work in a collaborative relationship with local projects to prepare the Plan, conduct the evaluation, and prepare progress and evaluation reports.

For more information about our local program evaluation efforts, please refer to the following publication:

Major Evaluation Category: Education/Participant Survey

Category Descriptions

Description: Emory University Smoke-free Home Intervention

Sample Activities: A non-experimental design with pre- and post-implementation surveys of intervention participants will be used to assess the impact of any voluntary smoke-free home policies adopted. A minimum of 2500 screener surveys will be collected to determine participant eligibility. A convenience sample will be used to select participants to complete the screener survey. A minimum of 500 baseline surveys will be conducted by telephone prior to intervention mailings and coaching calls. Post-test (3 month follow up) surveys will be conducted by telephone 3 months after the last intervention mailing to all participants. Measuring the same subjects allows us to measure any changes in smoking restrictions in participants' homes and cars that may have resulted from the smoke-free homes intervention. Baseline Survey Instrument: The baseline survey instrument will be adapted from one used by Emory University and it will include: questions related to smoking history, secondhand smoke (SHS) exposure, cigarette consumption, cessation attempts, household composition and smoking status, beliefs about SHS, stage of readiness to restrict smoking in the home, self-efficacy to restrict smoking in the home, prior smoke-free home attempts, and SHS reduction behaviors. The baseline survey will also collect demographic information on the participants' ethnicity/race, age, gender, educational level, marital status, household income, and employment status. The evaluation will be conducted in collaboration with the Emory Prevention Research Center. Three-Month Follow-up Survey Instrument: the follow-up survey instrument will be adapted from one used by Emory University and will assess the following outcome data: if a smoke-free home ban was established and smoking restrictions in cars. For smokers, the survey will assess the stage of change for quitting, cessation attempts, and the number of cigarettes smoked per day. The three-month survey instrument will also collect the following process data: how much of the mailings were read; how often mailings were reviewed, how relevant were the materials to you personally, how helpful was the information to you, did you or anyone in your home use the materials (e.g., sign pledge, put up the no-smoking sign, use the stickers). The evaluation will be conducted in collaboration with the Emory Prevention Research Center. Gift cards will be provided to focus group participants to encourage participation. A $5 Starbucks gift card will be provided to eligible participants who enroll in the smoke-free home intervention; a $20 gift card will be distributed to participants who complete the pre-test and a $25 gift card will be given to participants who complete the post-intervention survey. The cost of the gift card may not exceed $50 in value per person, per year. The project is responsible for the possession, security (e.g., will keep under lock and key), and accountability of the gift cards. A tracking log will be prepared and maintained to track and identify each of the gift cards, value, gift card transfer date, and recipient. Gift cards cannot be used to purchase tobacco, nicotine products, and/or alcohol products.

Major Evaluation Category: Education/Participant Survey

Category Descriptions

Instructions: Describe each Education/Participant Survey that has a distinct purpose or topic. Examples include a survey to assess the quality and satisfaction with a conference or with coalition functioning; a quiz to test knowledge or skills; or a needs assessment in preparation of training and technical assistance. If the Education/Participant Survey will be implemented multiple times to the same group as a pre/post-test, please specify the number of times in the "waves of data collection" question below.

Evaluation Activity: (Describe the evaluation activity that will be used. Describe the instrument to be used, topic or focus of the data collection, data collection method, who or what is being sampled, sample size, sampling method, and where the data will be collected.)

A non-experimental design with pre- and post-implementation surveys of intervention participants will be used to assess the impact of any voluntary smoke-free home policies adopted. A minimum of 2500 screener surveys will be collected to determine participant eligibility. A convenience sample will be used to select participants to complete the screener survey. A minimum of 500 baseline surveys will be conducted by telephone prior to intervention mailings and coaching calls. Post-test (3 month follow up) surveys will be conducted by telephone 3 months after the last intervention mailing to all participants. Measuring the same subjects allows us to measure any changes in smoking restrictions in participants' homes and cars that may have resulted from the smoke-free homes intervention. Baseline Survey Instrument: The baseline survey instrument will be adapted from one used by Emory University and it will include: questions related to smoking history, secondhand smoke (SHS) exposure, cigarette consumption, cessation attempts, household composition and smoking status, beliefs about SHS, stage of readiness to restrict smoking in the home, self-efficacy to restrict smoking in the home, prior smoke-free home attempts, and SHS reduction behaviors. The baseline survey will also collect demographic information on the participants' ethnicity/race, age, gender, educational level, marital status, household income, and

Sample Project Abstract

The Sonoma County Tobacco Education Program serves as the Local Lead Agency for Sonoma County. The major goals of the Program are to reduce exposure to secondhand smoke in multiunit housing, incorporate smoking cessation policies into alcohol, drug, and behavioral health treatment programs, assist jurisdictions in the adoption of healthy retail policies that include monitoring of retailer compliance with Federal, State, and local tobacco sales laws, and mobilize youth in tobacco control trainings and activities. Strategies to accomplish these goals include secondhand smoke and healthy retail policy education for policy makers and other community stakeholders, smoking cessation policy development assistance for alcohol, drug, and behavioral health treatment providers, and technical assistance and training to conduct tobacco control activities for the Coalition for a Tobacco-Free Sonoma County and youth partners.Â
