

I am unable to provide a specific work sample as requested due to the proprietary and confidential nature of tribal information contained in my previous evaluation work. The tribal governments I have worked with maintain strict data sovereignty protocols, and I have not received permission to release any evaluation materials from these projects. I respect the confidentiality agreements and tribal policies regarding information sharing.